

From the Pastor...

Theme: Blessed to be a Blessing.

Word for the Year: Blessed

Scriptures for the week: Gen. 8:13-22

Thought for the Week: “There are two ways to be fooled. One is to believe what isn’t true; the other is to refuse to believe what is true.”

Soren kierkegaard

“Additional Readings for the Week”

Mon.	Gen. 8:13-14	The divine power that renewed the face of the earth after the flood, can also renew the face of a afflicted, troubled soul.
Tues.	Gen. 8: 15-17	Noah was stepping out of the ark into a new season, God had delivered Noah and his family from judgment and now he was to build a new life.
Wed.	Gen. 8:18-19	Go forth, after being delivered means having hope for the future, to walk by faith knowing that God in Christ Jesus walks with you.
Thurs.	Gen. 8:20	Worship should succeed every act of Godly deliverance. Our worship must express supreme thankfulness.
Fri.	Gen. 8:21	Even though the human heart is inclined to evil, God promised never again to send a disastrous flood to turn his good creation into chaos.
Sat.	Gen. 8:22	The course of nature never changes. God has confirmed the cycle will continue and God will never destroy the earth again.

Point to Ponder: Noah believed God, that He would accept him and his family through the sacrifice. We must also believe God, that He will accept us through the sacrifice of Christ upon the cross.

Prayer: Gracious God, Father of my Lord Jesus Christ. Thank you Father for delivering me from the bondage of sin, give me the strength to trust you more and to believe in your promises, in Jesus name, Amen
